FOUR HOME RUNS MADE

Special to Morning News.

Canton did some heavy hitting today, defeat was inevitable through the slugging of Miller, of the McKeesport team, who drove out two home runs fielding of the McKeesport aggregation. Three double plays, in each of which the heavy hitting Miller had a hand, headed off scoring chances for the Canton bunch.

The Stark county men started off like winners, gatting two runs in the first white they held McKeesport runless. Then, after McKeesport had an- Kunkle, c. 0 0 3 3 nexed one in the second, Canton came back with three in the third, enough to leave them in the lead even against McKeesport's three in the third. Each got one in the fifth, but McKeesport. tacked on two each in the seventh and eighth. Canton being able to get only two in the final inning. Raridon and Balley pounded out four baggers for Canton in the swattest. Score: ABRHPOAE McKeesport
